Net-a-Porter Sale: 7 Pairs of Shoes to Buy at a Big Discount

BY JIHAN FORBES
MAY 24, 2017

If you're wondering why all your fashion-obsessed friends are scrambling to grab their credit cards, it's because the Net-a-Porter sale is here, as always, it's so good. There is nothing like seeing the prices of all those designer duds get slashed down to figures you can justify actually shelling out the cash for. And there's also nothing to compare to the satisfaction of finally nabbing that fly gear you've been eyeing after waiting patiently for the price to go down. My personal favorite thing to shop for during the sale are shoes, and Net-a-Porter has some pretty sweet deals available on tons of shoes that I've been wanting, but was not about to pay for — at least not at the original price. Browse through the selection, and you'll find several pairs going for as much as 50% off the original price. Now if that's not enough to peak your interest, perhaps a peek at some of our favorite options from the sale will get you excited. Scroll down to see some of our favorite options going for 40-50% off right now at Net-a-Porter.
