There may be a time and a place for red, but nude knows no bounds. Nude lipsticks, however, can be tricky— they run the risk of washing out the wearer and some tend to turn cakey when you were promised smooth coverage.

Behold, the nude lipsticks you've long been begging for. Matte formulas that manage to stay in the lines you want and out of the lines you don't, long-wearing glosses that won't make your arm sore from re-application, and stains that actually, well, stain your lips.

After flipping through the 11 balms, pencils, and lipsticks below, you'll be wearing nothing but nude this fall. Nude lipstick, that is...
